

Labeling requirements at food vending locations for food containing ingredients of genetically modified organisms (GMOs)

1. The regulation is established under the provisions of Paragraph 2 of Article 25 of the Act Governing Food Safety and Sanitation (hereinafter referred to as the Act).
2. The GMOs referred in this regulation comply with the GMOs authorized by Paragraph 2 of Article 21 of the Act.

Food that contains GMOs at food vending locations with business registration shall display the words “genetically-modified” or “with genetic modification”.

3. The labeling requirements shall not apply to foods containing material which contains, consists of or is produced from GMOs in a proportion no higher than 3 percent of the food ingredients considered individually or food consisting of a single ingredient, provided that this presence is adventitious or technically unavoidable.
4. Food at food vending locations with business registration contains non-GMOs which exist international approvals to food of GMOs may display the words “un-genetically-modified” or “with un-genetic modification” and could displays the words “the proportion of material which contains, consists of or is produced from GMOs considered individually is approved for use in a regulation of _____(country)or other synonymous terms” or the proportion of material which contains, consists of or is produced from GMOs considered individually.

5. Based on this regulation, the labeling method shall comply with the following matters:
  - (1) The labeling method: cards, menu annotation, mark (label) or notice board are permitted options for selecting either hanging, erecting(inserting), sticking or other ways that can be clearly identified.
  - (2) In mark (label), the length and width of the font shall not be less than 2 mm. In other ways, the length and width of the font shall not be less than 2 cm.
  - (3) Labeling “un-genetically-modified” or “with un-genetic modification”, the length and the width of the font do not be stipulated.