

Control Instructions for Importing Chinese Mitten Crabs From Places Other Than China

When applying for an inspection, one must attach official documents listed with the country of origin or fishing areas batch by batch to prove that the crabs do not originate in China to receive the inspection. In addition, 16 results of veterinary drug tests shall also be attached batch-by-batch. Receiving a batch-by-batch inspection and complying with all the regulations, the crabs can then be imported.